Description

SOMETHING UGLY'S WAITIN' FOR YOU

Honey's working weekends down at the Six Mile, trying to figure her life out. Her boyfriend's about to leave the country, her college advisor hates her guts, her momma ain't listening, and she's got this cop breathing down her neck just about all the time.

She finds a friend in her new colleague Lisa, but when one of their regular customers turns up dead, everything goes sideways faster than a greased hog at the county fair...
